You may not publish, display, disclose, rent, lease, modify, loan, distribute, or create derivative works based on the Software or any part thereof or the license key or any part thereof. You may not reverse engineer, decompile, translate, adapt, or disassemble the Software, nor shall you attempt to create the source code from the object code for the Software.

5 Confidentiality

You agree to reasonably communicate the terms and conditions of this Software License Agreement to those persons employed by you who come into contact with the Software, and to use reasonable best efforts to ensure their compliance with such terms and conditions, including, without limitation, not knowingly permitting such persons to use any portion of the Program for the purpose of deriving the source code of the Program or defeating the license key. You must not publish the license key to any third party and must make sure that purchased license keys are not used on multiple computers.

6 Privacy

We guarantee that MultiMouse never transmits any personal information to any 3rd party over the internet.

The built-in update feature of the Software checks for new versions on our web server. Such queries are logged including the license key, time/date of access, hardware ID and IP address for a limited time on our server for security reasons and to avoid software piracy.

MultiMouse requires online authorization of the purchased license keys by our web server. Such authorization is logged including the license key, time/date of access, hardware ID and IP address for a limited time on our server for security reasons.

7 Upgrade Policy

Minor updates containing bug fixes or minor improvements are free-of-charge and are provided within the release period of the current version. Minor updates are indicated by an increase of the version number's second digit, e.g. v1.0 to v1.1. Major new versions are not free-of-charge but available at discount for existing customers of the previous version. Major new versions have an increased first digit of the version number, e.g. from v1.0 to v2.0.

8 Technical Support

We provide free installation support within 30 days after purchase. Additional technical support is provided in the support section of our website on a voluntary base. Maintenance packages are offered as a separate service and are not included in the license fee. Technical Support for a particular version is discontinued 30 days after release of a major new version.
